As well as being a sweet, dark comedy, this new release points out the lengths people will go to avoid the blight of suicide on the family name. Here the efforts lead to hysterical results. Robert Altman directs, with his usual aplomb, a wonderful ensemble - Glen Close, Patricia Neal, Liv Tyler, Julianne Moore. PG13

Judy Garland, Ray Bolger, Bert Lahr, and Jack Haley romp once again - at MM - from a crisp, newly released video edition of this 1939 classic. It's only 101 min. long - I always thought it was an epic length because the few times it was broadcast when I was a kid it was interspersed with endless commercials. See it straight up on our big screen. The "Infamous" Mark Idczak will be there to introduce one of his favourite oldies. G

Coal Miner's Daughter

Sissy Spacek gives an awesome performance (and sings all her songs) in this 1980 feel-good story of Loretta Lynn, the "Queen of Country Music". A very young Tommy Lee Jones is terrific as the innovative husband/promoter. He marries his "backwoods girl" at thirteen and, four children and a few years later, pushes her to fame, then struggles to adjust to her stardom. PG

Another film from an exotic locale that saturates every frame. Two sisters-in-law living in modern New Delhi: one trapped in a barren 15-year-old marriage, the other newly wed to a man who is still in love with his mistress. The two women are drawn together gradually for the passion that is missing in their lives. PG13 Just Thomas
Original letterbox format, in English

A gentle comedy from Ireland. When Ned dies of shock after winning the lottery, two long-time friends agree he would have wanted the community to benefit from his good luck. PG
