NEW YEARS DAY

The true story of two climbers and their perilous journey up the west face of Siula Grande in the Peruvian Andes in 1985, and their outrageous survival on the way down. This film will inspire your New Year! You'll never forget it. R (for language, otherwise a film for all)

6:30 Mon Jan 3, 2005

A sly Canadian documentary about the perils and triumphs in the daily battle over curbside real estate. This screening dedicated to the kind folks at City Hall who allow us to park free on Lee Avenue, and the determined commissionaires who ticket us sometimes anyway, and those folks at C H again who kindly cancel those tickets.... R (for considerable bad language)

With telephone Q&A with Toronto actor Dov Tiefenbach (DAOP's "Lonny Goosen" and Flower And Garnet's "Ronnie")

6:30 Mon Jan 10

The film that redefines group therapy. Even if you avoid Heavy Metal music this film will draw you in. This feature documentary is about life off the road, and off the rails, for the mega-selling metal rock band. The filmmakers worked for almost two years, during a turbulent and disturbing time in the group's long career. When egos clash during the recording of a new album, the group's label hires a high-priced therapist to sort through the conflict R (for language)

MONSTER ROAD

A fascinating portrait of an outsider artist in Seattle, claymator Bruce Bickford, and his elderly father, George. In the elder Bickford's day he was an aerospace engineer, now losing his abilities to the onset of Alzheimers. The younger once did some animation for Frank Zappa but now works along making sequences of complex animated scenes that will probably go unseen, except for this doc. He believes the world would be a better place if everyone worked their stuff out in little animated films. PG13 (some gory claymation)
Telephone interview with director Brett Ingram from North Carolina

THE FAR SIDE OF THE MOON

From Canada's Robert LePage. After the death of his mother, a man tries to discover a meaning to his life, to the universe and to rebuild a relationship with the only family he has left: his brother. Quirky and thoughtful PG

6:30 Monday Jan 31

The filmed account of The Great Canadian rock festival train tour. Performances by Janis and The Band are incredible!
<http://usa.festivalexpress.com/> R (language) The 2nd of MM's "music on film/film on music" series for 2005!

6:30 Monday Feb 7

A very moving film about a tumultuous year in the life of The Tom household in Fairfield, California. A single mom is managing a vibrant adopted family of 11 special needs children. Exhausting, challenging, a study in self and mutual acceptance. I think it's the kind of film that can change the world! PG13

Special screening! Jan 29 7pm
