for Mental Health Week (May 2-8) Back to MM by popular request, Norway's highest grossing film of all time is a winning Odd Couple comedy with an interesting twist: Felix and Oscar's Norse counterparts are both outpatients from a state-run mental health facility. Off-beat, charming, funny, the film deftly manages to avoid many of the usual condescending stereotypes while bringing home the importance of a safe and independent housing and a supporting community. You'll leave smiling! R subtitled

for Asian Heritage Month
Winner of over 30 awards, "Robot Stories" is science fiction from the heart, four stories in which utterly human characters struggle to connect in a world of robot babies and android office workers. Almost all the actors and the director are Asian Americans but it's not about being Asian American. www.robotstories.net R

Victoria Day

The most entertaining film I saw last year! Ray Charles' career and life dramatically depicted, driven by Ray's solid gold hits and a brilliant turn by Jamie Foxx. 14A

"Crowd-pleasing... an appealing mix of artistry, nostalgia and unspoken political overtones... a musical, historical and emotional odyssey." VARIETY
"A fabulous new documentary... affirms the power of music to unite people in a common bond." CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

Music, history, and emotion fuel this dynamic, award-winning tribute to Los Zafiro, the Beatles of 1960s Cuba. Thirty years after their breakup, the two surviving band members, Manuel Galban and Miguel Cancio, reunite in the streets of present-day Havana, a place full of unforgettable songs and memories for them and for their still-loyal fans. Family members, fellow artists, and friends weigh in, creating a stirring and definitive portrait of The Sapphires.

With special guest - director Lorenzo Destefano

RYAN (14min) & ALTER EGOS (52min)
We'll screen the Academy Award winning animated film and the documentary that takes you deeper into the story of Ryan Larkin and the making of the film RYAN. Ryan cheered the win at the Oscars from his seat at his favourite Montreal bar when Chris Landreth's bizarre portrait of him won, but how does it feel to be portrayed as a broken person to a world wide audience? Where has Ryan's life gone since his 14 minutes of fame hit the screens? Aren't you curious? PG13

MM TURNS 12 !!!
6:30 Monday June 13

It's the kind of film just right for a MM Anniversary: a discovery - a lovely romance, a little bit fantasy, a metamorphosis, a good time with a few bumps thrown in. With the help of a deck chair floated away by clusters of helium balloons, our Australian protagonist happens on a whole new chance at life. PG 13
