Instead of hunkering down to face brutal treatment for cancer our protagonist choses to leave family and home behind and to head out on his motorcycle across Canada. He meets interesting people and encounters many giant things (we have a remarkable number of oversized hockey sticks, nickels, geese, wigwams, and deck chairs etc). A great Canadian road movie with terrific soundtrack, this film really grows on you. 94min Pg 2008

MEATBALLS

30 YEARS, kids! Here's the Summer Camp experience you never had - with Bill Murray in his prime (and his first starring part) as a zany yet inspiring and empathetic as the camp counsellor. Brought to attention by my 29 year old son, "a fun kids' film heralding the summer (as in its maddening theme song 'are you ready for the summer?')...it has scene after scene of Bill Murray as head counsellor being charming and hilarious, and bonding with this lonely camper in a touching way. Give it a try perhaps, it might tickle you." It did. 99min Pg 1979!

Post-WWII Germany: Nearly a decade after his affair with an older woman came to a mysterious end, law student Michael Berg re-encounters his former lover as she defends herself in a war-crime trial. Not a perfect movie but a totally engaging look into post Holocaust angst and human nature. Kate Winslet (Best Actress Oscar) and newcomer David Kross are great! R 124min

THE IMMORTAL BEAVER

Two Victoria films:
CROWDED AT THE BOTTOM is a portrait of a fixture in our busking scene for almost 30 years - Blues player, one man band, Dave Harris. 48min 2003 Pg
THE IMMORTAL BEAVER is an ode to the Canadian bush plane that opened up this country. You'll see it's history, a resurrection of a mothballed WWII model being completely restored at Viking Air in Sidney, and hear from enthusiasts like Harrison Ford and the test pilot who flew the first prototype. Producer Arwen Hunter will join us. 48min Pg

SITA SINGS THE BLUES

You can watch quirky animated treat on line but as the filmmaker says, "The best way to see Sita Sings the Blues is on a big screen, in a dark room, with other people." Several different styles of animation, cool 20's blues torch songs, Indian mythology, modern day angst, and three shadow puppets narrating the action - this is something different...and fun! 82min PG 2008
