

MOVIE MONDAY'S THURSDAY MOVIE on 3B

THURSDAY
May 13 6:30

This British film is a lot of fun, slightly risqué, and has some great musical moments. But it also has some sweet ideas about acceptance, trying again, and camaraderie.

A Movie Monday Favourite.

How small is your difference?

"Irresistible...hilarious!"

-Janet Maslin, THE NEW YORK TIMES

Six unemployed men, inspired by a touring group of male strippers, decide they can make a small fortune by putting on a striptease show of their own—but with one small difference. They intend to go the "full monty" and strip completely naked! In this hilarious, heartfelt comedy, these six friends discover the inner strength to bare it all in front of the world. This "enchantingly funny...crowd-pleasing" comedy (David Ansen, NEWSWEEK) features the music of Donna Summer, Gary Glitter, Sister Sledge and Tom Jones.

1997, Color, Approx. 95 Minutes

