BC Day

5 bands from 4 countries unite for the World Music Institute's Gypsy Caravan 6-week concert tour across North America with the musicians astounding every audience they meet. Their musical styles range from flamenco to brass band, from Romanian violin and Indian folk to Raga and jazz. And with fire in their bellies and soul in their voices, they present an explosion of song and dance that celebrates the best of Gypsy music and the diversity of the Romani people. 110min 2006 Pg

Three films by David Laing Dawson
Two about art and wellness:
The Brush, The Pen and Recovery

(33min) – about an art studio for people with mental illness and showing an exhibition of their work in Dawson's Hamilton, ON gallery.

www.bridgergross.com/thebrush.html

Painting with Tom, David, and Emily (14min) – following the spirits of outdoor landscapists Emily Carr, Tom Thompson, and David Milne.

and Walter James Cross: The Reality of Schizophrenia (53 minutes)

Finding an abandoned theater, a man who lives with SZ stands on the stage alone and recounts his descent into mental illness and what his life is like now; what makes a difference for him, what is comforting, what he's lost. Created by a psychiatrist who has worked for many years with patients who have schizophrenia and based largely on a particular patient, now friend's, experience. all PG

An adaptation of Maurice Sendak's classic children's story, where Max, a disobedient little boy sent to bed without his supper, creates his own world--a forest inhabited by ferocious wild creatures that crown Max as their ruler. It's not an easy job, being a ruler. Stunning visuals and lots to talk about. 101min 2009 G

THE LAST STATION

A tale of two romances, one beginning, one near its end, The Last Station is a complex, funny, rich and emotional story about the difficulty of living with love and the impossibility of living without it.

A new male secretary comes to work with Tolstoy and finds a complicated scene, full of hypocrisy and intrigue, in his own life and in the volatile couple at the head of the house. You will too! 2009 112min 14A some nudity and sexuality.

Academy Award® Winner for Best Documentary of 2009. Using state-of-the-art equipment, a group of activists, filmmakers and freedivers led by renowned dolphin trainer Ric O'Barry (Flipper's trainer who, ironically, started the popularity of captive dolphins), on a covert mission to infiltrate a cove near Taijii, Japan to expose both a shocking instance of animal abuse and a serious threat to human health. The film reads like an exciting caper film, not just a "cause" polemic. 2009 Pg13 92min <http://www.thecovemovie.com/>
