BEST IN SHOW

Sweetly funny throughout, Best in Show is a mockumentary that follows five entrants in a prestigious dog show. The film focuses on the slightly surreal interactions among the various owners and handlers as they travel to the show and compete.

Much of the dialogue was improvised.

People and their dogs! You may know some just like these only slightly exaggerated types...

From the folks who brought you the hilarious This Is Spinal Tap, Waiting for Guffman, A Mighty Wind. Christopher Guest directed; he also co-wrote the script with Eugene Levy.
