Jodie Foster directs and co-stars with Mel Gibson in this emotional story about a man on a journey to re-discover his family and re-start his life. Plagued by his own demons, Walter Black was once a successful toy executive and family man who now suffers from depression. No matter what he tries, Walter can't seem to get himself back on track...until a beaver hand puppet enters his life. 1 hr. 31 min 2011 Pg13 some disturbing scenes

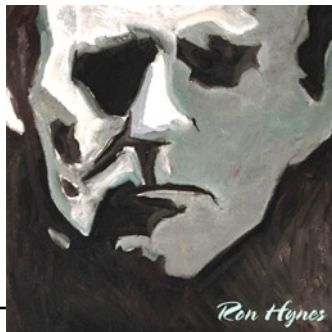

Morgan Spurlock (Super Size Me) takes us on a smart, funny, and somewhat scary ride through the concept of corporate sponsorship as he sells a documentary to be entirely, openly financed by product placements. He's good! Just try to resist his pitch. I couldn't. 90min Pg13 2011 [He] will certainly succeed in making audiences think more about the advertisements they see every day. Mostly though, Spurlock just wants to make you laugh. And in that regard, the movie is a considerable success. -Tom Clift, film journalist

"100 pounds overweight, loaded up on steroids and suffering from a debilitating autoimmune disease, Australian Joe Cross is at the end of his rope and the end of his hope. In the mirror he saw a 310lb man whose gut was bigger than a beach ball and a path laid out before him that wouldn't end well - with one foot already in the grave, the other wasn't far behind. FAT, SICK & NEARLY DEAD is an inspiring film that chronicles Joe's personal mission to regain his health."

It's Joe's story (and several more he gathers as he travels the USA, incl. a morbidly overweight trucker and a woman who suffers headaches) that might inspire breaking the addiction to junk food, encourage a healthier diet, and regaining a more active lifestyle. 97min Pg 2010

RON HYNES: The Man Of A Thousand Songs

Here's a totally intriguing portrait of a Canadian icon, as told by himself and his intense and articulate nephew novelist Joel Thomas Hynes. It's been a 35 year long and winding road, with failed relationships, battles with an alter ego and drugs - a turbulent life in search of the perfect song. "Sonny's Dream" is one of those. 90min 2010 Pg

Veteran filmmaker Bill MacGillivray will be calling in from NS to talk with our audience about this story.

7:30 Monday Oct 31 Hallowe'en

Set in a 19th century European village, this stop-motion, animated feature follows the story of Victor (voiced by Johnny Depp), a young man who is whisked away to the underworld and wed to a mysterious Corpse Bride, while his real bride, Victoria, waits bereft in the land of the living. Though life in the Land of the Dead proves to be a lot more colorful than his strict Victorian upbringing, Victor learns that there is nothing in this world, or the next, that can keep him away from his one true love. It's a tale of optimism, romance and a very lively afterlife, told in classic Tim Burton style. 77min 2005 Pg
