

CREST.BD: The Collaborative RESearch Team to study psychosocial issues in Bipolar Disorder is a team of researchers, clinicians, and community members dedicated to developing knowledge on bipolar disorder.
www.crestbd.ca

CREST.BD
Presents:

Crooked Beauty

by Ken Paul Rosenthal

A powerful documentary that explores understandings of creativity and bipolar disorder.

(www.crookedbeauty.com)

Chomavision

by Bruce Saunders

An 86 year-old lifelong artist whose story is archetypical of a life lived with creativity and bipolar disorder as major drivers

Why?

by Carol Halstead

A woman who at 60 years of age finally has a chance to talk about her life through art.

Film Screening

Exploring Bipolar Disorder and Creativity

Date: March 31, 2011 Time: 7:00-9:00pm

Location: Goldcorp Centre for the Arts, SFU
149 W. Hastings Street, Vancouver, BC

Free Public Event, no tickets are required.

Contact: sally.mcbride@ubc.ca

Website: www.crestbd.ca

Sponsored by:

MOVIE MONDAY

The films will be followed by a post-screening dialogue session facilitated by Bruce Saunders and Dr. Erin Michalak. The evening will provide a venue for the community to engage in discussion about creativity and bipolar disorder, with a focus on how wellness is nurtured through creativity, and possible alternatives to the stigmas and stereotypes associated with bipolar disorder as represented in the media.