An ambitious young man hires on as a go-fer on the set of The Prince And The Showgirl (1957). He soon becomes Marilyn's confidant during her turbulent struggle to star alongside the overpowering Laurence Olivier. Michelle Williams is Marilyn and Kenneth Branagh the perfect Olivier in a wonderfully adapted memoir, shot on the same locations as the original story. A truly touching tribute to a troubled star. 99min 2011 R with special presentation by Mark Idzak

THE IRON LADY

The Iron Lady is a surprising and intimate portrait of Margaret Thatcher, the first and only female Prime Minister of The United Kingdom. One of the 20th century's most famous and influential women, Thatcher came from nowhere to smash through barriers of gender and class to be heard in a male dominated world. Meryl Streep's portrayal of a once-great lady in her prime, and latterly adled by dementia, is amazing as the screenplay is sharp. 105min 2011 Pg13

 Movie Monday's *
19th Anniversary!!

After 44 years in the institution Bill's life was about to begin... This is an inspiring new documentary showing how a forgotten man and an uncommon friendship shattered the world's perceptions of people with disabilities. With a harmonica, a warm cup of coffee and a positive embrace of life, get to know the real Bill Sackter, who became an international hero for people with disabilities, and witness how a little friendship and attention transformed Bill's life and everyone around him. Bill Sackter's life story was made famous by the award winning made-for-tv movie "Bill" starring Mickey Rooney and Dennis Quaid, but the real story is WAY better. 90min 2008 Pg

A PORTRAIT OF MYFANWY PAVELIC

A special to MM:

Broadcaster's Screening version. This locally made film about one of Canada's most loved artists, Victoria native Myfanwy Pavelic, was beautifully crafted by a MM booster, Agustine Luviano-Cordero (who lives just down the street from MM). Pavelic discusses her techniques, her materials, her approach to her subjects, some of the world's famous artists like Vladimir Horowitz and Andres Segovia, Catherine Hepburn and Yehudi Menuhin. She also talks about less well-known friends and family who have been important to her over the years. She shows viewers through her studio, as she works on a self-portrait and one of Pierre Trudeau. It's an amazing parade of accomplished people and equally artful canvases. 50min 2007 Pg Agustine Luviano-Cordero will be with us for the Q&A.

Bill Cunningham New York

The "Bill" in question is 80+ New York Times photographer Bill Cunningham. For decades, this Schwinn-riding cultural anthropologist has been obsessively and inventively chronicling NYC's fashion trends and high society charity soirées. Cunningham's enormous body of work is more reliable than any catwalk as an expression of time, place and individual flair. In turn, Bill Cunningham New York is a delicate, funny and often poignant portrait of a dedicated artist whose only wealth is his own humanity and unassuming grace. 84min 2010 Pg
