RAIN MAN

This classic film is well worth a revival on our big screen. Made 24 years ago when we were all much younger, when Tom Cruise was just a sharp young actor, and Dustin Hoffman was taking real chances as a character actor and most of us knew little about autism. Charlie, a sharp, egotistical yuppie finds his father has left him only a car and a few rose bushes while the expected estate has gone to a brother he didn't know existed. It's a solid, entertaining film with lots to talk about.

MONSIEUR LAZHAR

Here's a French Canadian film about a teacher who steps in after a previous teacher killed herself during recess at an elementary school. The kids know what happened but no one is talking about it in open terms. The Algerian replacement teacher has his own secret and past trauma, and sees a need to address the childrens' emotional needs gently but more directly. It's nicely done, very touching. Multiple award winner and Canada's Oscar contender. 94min 2011 Pg13

We'll have a special guest Tara Timmers and discussion with this thoughtful, provocative film.

George Clooney The Descendants

Set in Hawaii, The Descendants is a sometimes humorous, sometimes tragic journey for Matt King

(George Clooney) an indifferent husband and father of two girls, who is forced to re-examine his past and embrace his future when his wife suffers a boating accident off of Waikiki. He now has to step up to parenting a couple of daughters he doesn't really know, a beset with challenges with deciding the future of a large piece of family land and a surprising, unwelcome revelation. "A thoroughly rewarding assembled-for-adults dramedy that benefits immensely from both its island locale and one of George Clooney's finest performances. www.foxsearchlight.com/thedescendants/ 110min 2011 R

DINOSAUR MAKER

an evening with Bill Maylone

In the days before computer animation, dinosaurs and other fantastic creatures were brought to life most effectively using the painstaking hands-on technique of stop-motion animation. Our guest Bill Maylone, now a Mayne Island resident, had a career in this art, directing or creating animated movies and sequences for the likes of Adbusters, the National Film Board, NOVA, and the CBC. He will share his stories, images, movies, and models and talk about the challenges, successes, and frustrations involved in being driven by the unusual, but - fortunately - constructive obsession of making inanimate objects appear to be alive. He came to realize that this odd profession could actually contribute to changing the world.

- with clips of Bill's own work and some classic Harryhausen work too. Approx 2hrs Pg

ROBERT DE NIRO PAUL DANO

BEING FLYNN

De Niro is Flynn, a con man, passionate, self-proclaimed 'great writer'. He's obstreperous and a serious drinker on his way to homelessness. Paul Dano is the son he left behind but has re-connected with after many years of absenteeism. He has his own issues and is drifting, heading for a job working in a shelter for homeless men. Not an easy watch, revealing of realities that lead to homelessness, insights into dysfunctional family dynamics.

Based a real life memoir by son Nick Flynn. Powerful cinema experience! Both De Niro and Dano keep it real. 102min 2012 R suggestive scenes, drug use, language. http://focusfeatures.com/being_flynn
