PEOPLE OF A FEATHER

"People of a Feather is a breathtaking journey into the remote world of the Belcher Islands Inuit people. Uniting this community's past and present is their cultural connection with the eider duck, a species now suffering massive die-offs due to changing sea dynamics as seasons and ocean currents are reversed by run-off from hydroelectric dams. Filmed over seven winters, Arctic ecologist and cinematographer Joel Heath's debut feature employs stunning time-lapse photography and underwater footage to create an authentic and insightful portrayal of a community challenged by a changing environment. This stunning piece of visual poetry weaves past with present to powerfully acknowledge humankind's relationship with nature and the fragility of our existence."

Music Movie Wednesday!
 The Singing Revolution shares how, between 1987 and 1991, hundreds of thousands of Estonians gathered publicly to sing forbidden patriotic songs and share protest speeches, risking their lives to proclaim their desire for independence. While violence and bloodshed was the unfortunate end result in other occupied nations of the USSR, the revolutionary songs of the Estonians anchored their struggle for freedom, which was ultimately accomplished without the loss of a single life.

RUBY SPARKS

What happens when your dream-girl creation becomes real? Calvin (Paul Dano) is a young novelist who achieved phenomenal success early in his career but is now struggling with his writing - as well as his romantic life. Finally, he makes a breakthrough and creates a character named Ruby who inspires him. When Calvin finds Ruby (Zoe Kazan), in the flesh, sitting on his couch about a week later, he is completely flabbergasted that his words have turned into a living, breathing person. But like most dreams come true, it's a little more complicated than that... 104min 2012 R

6:30 & 8:30 Monday Feb 11 - for FAMILY DAY:
 a Wholesome Family Double Feature -

At 6:30 - INDIE GAME: The Movie is the first feature documentary film about making video games. It looks specifically at the underdogs of the video game industry, indie game developers, who sacrifice money, health and sanity to realize their lifelong dreams of sharing their visions with the world. Four developers, three games, a whole lot of passion, and one ultimate goal — to express oneself through a video game. Made in Canada!

The KING of KONG
 A FISTFUL of QUARTERS

At 8:30 - KING OF KONG: a Fist Full Of Quarters A brilliantly elaborate and satisfying doc about the quest for world domination — to be best at Donkey Kong. Two diametrically different personalities; the brash, long-reigning champion, Billy Mitchell, and upstart challenger, a sincere, Redmond, WA science teacher, Steve Wiebe, square off like Frazier and Muhammad Ali in their heyday. Even if you've never touched a console, you'll find this study of competitive human nature and geeky obsession a treat! Rotten Tomatoes and I give it top marks. 90min 2007 Pg
