JIRO DREAMS OF SUSHI

Jiro Dreams of Sushi is the story of 85 year-old Jiro Ono, considered by many to be the world's greatest sushi chef. He is the proprietor of Sukiyabashi Jiro, a 10-seat, sushi-only restaurant inauspiciously located in a Tokyo subway station. Despite its humble appearances, it is a world destination for high-rolling gourmards. It's about work ethic and focus on perfection of that work. 91min 2012 Pg (in Japanese, well subtitled) half of his life, he has fought a spiritual war against two demons: Anacron, an intergalactic consciousness that possesses Stewart's mind, and the Canadian mental health system, which diagnosed him with schizophrenia over a decade ago. With special guest Oak Bay Mayor Nils Jensen His review:

"The Castle is an Australia almost-cult classic small budget movie with big results. It grossed over A$10 million – over 13 times what it cost to make. It's unpretentious, funny and very heart warming. The movie tells the story of the Kerrigan family who live modestly and happily next to the Melbourne Airport until they are faced with expropriation as the airport expands. The location is terribly un-Oak Bay being next to a toxic landfill and under power lines. But to the Kerrigan's it's their home, their Castle. While it's the classic tale of the little guy against Big Government and Big Business at its core it's really about family and community values."
