TJ Dawe is well known for his original, funny, challenging and often verbally acrobatic solo shows at the Victoria Fringe. I saw him perform this show in Sept and had to bring it to the Movie Monday Theatre. Medicine is a live performance, an autobiographical monologue about a retreat TJ attended, on a hobby farm on the outskirts of Victoria, involving the ingestion of the Peruvian shamanic psychotropic plant medicine ayahuasca. The retreat was led by Dr Gabor Maté whose work TJ made an integral part of his previous show, Lucky 9. As is all TJ's art, he has taken this life-changing experience and made it an intensely personal, amusing, gripping and broadly meaningful piece. The show is approximately 90min long followed by a Q&A with TJ Dawe.

INSIGHTS: Focus on Dementia
See MM's Insights Course - details on MM's web page

THE GENIUS OF MARIAN is a visually rich, emotionally complex story about one family's struggle to come to terms with Alzheimer's disease. After Pam White is diagnosed at age 61 with early-onset Alzheimer's, life begins to change, slowly but irrevocably, for Pam and everyone around her. Her husband grapples with his role as it evolves from primary partner to primary caregiver. Pam's adult children find ways to show their love and support while mourning the gradual loss of their mother. Her eldest son, Banker, a filmmaker, records their conversations, allowing Pam to share memories of childhood and of her mother, the renowned painter Marian Williams Steele, who had Alzheimer's herself and died in 2001. 85min 2013 Pg <http://geniusofmarian.com/>

School of Rock

I was wrong. Jack Black was terrific in Bernie, but he's even more brilliant in this earlier collaboration with Richard Linklater. A wannabe rock star in need of cash poses as a substitute teacher at a prep school, and tries to turn his class into a rock band. Joan Cusack is the principal. 108min 2003 PG 13

The GRINCH

Inside a snowflake exists the magical land of Whoville. In Whoville, live the Whos, an almost mutated sort of munchkinlike people. All the Whos love Christmas, yet just outside of their beloved Whoville lives The Grinch. The Grinch is a nasty creature that hates Christmas, and plots to steal it away from the Whos which he equally abhors. Yet a small child, Cindy Lou Who, decides to try befriend the Grinch. This is the Ron Howard live action version starring Jim Carrey. 2000, 104 min Pg

WHITE CHRISTMAS

White Christmas' 60th Anniversary!
A successful song-and-dance team become romantically involved with a sister act and team up to save the failing Vermont inn of their former commanding general. It always snows in Vermont for Christmas, doesn't it? You know the drill. White Christmas can be blown off as a "weird sappy opus" but it's a lot of fun, and a great tradition to share in good company - on the big screen. 120min 1954 G

Also known in North America as Bachelor Weekend. A very modern groom-to-be reluctantly agrees to a stag weekend with his urban friends, wild camping in the great outdoors of the west of Ireland. To their horror they are joined by the bride's unpredictable brother, an alpha male known as "The Machine" whose explosive personality and wild leadership takes them on a journey they'll never forget. Actually quite touching! 94min 2013 PG13 "Bachelor Weekend works it's comedy formula to perfection" - Twitchfilm
