

at MOVIE MONDAY

Our 23rd Anniversary Event! June 13, 2016

Rebecca Jenkins and Joel Bakan will be with us! Rebecca accepted my offer to join us for the screening. She is my fave Canadian actress, illuminating many terrific Canadian films - special favourites of mine: Marion Bridge, Wilby Wonderful, A Whole Other Thing and the recent Stories We Tell. She upped the anti, offering to perform some songs as well. Her other career has always been chanteuse. Joel, as well as Professor of Law, author, writer and filmmaker of The Corporation, is a renowned jazz guitarist and will accompany her. This will be a treat! And, of course, there will be cake.

This is a romance about a young mother who pursues a dream of becoming a singer with a traveling dance band while her husband is serving in the Far East in WWII. The inevitable choice between loyalty to her husband and family, and the desire for independence propels this nostalgic love story to a climatic ending.

Rebecca Jenkins shone in this first starring role, based (more closely than suspected) on director Anne Wheeler's mother's experience.

After being lost in a mire of copyright and corporate confusion the film has been resurrected by Jenkins and lawyer husband Joel Bakan. Anne Wheeler has remastered the film to a beautiful HiDef version - so now, luckily for us, this Canadian gem is available again for us to enjoy.

110min 1990 Pg

www.movie monday.ca

supported by:

Canada Council
for the Arts

Conseil des Arts
du Canada

at the Eric Martin Pavilion Theatre 1900 Block Fort St Free...Donations much appreciated!