a special film for BC Day!

Canadian filmmaker Phillip Borsos, had a short but bright career; Grey Fox (1982) Bethune: The Making of a Hero (1990), and several brilliant shorts like Spar Tree and Nails), before being felled by Leukemia. This, his last film, Far From Home, is overlooked as "family entertainment", but it is favourite of mine; a rollicking, realistic story about a boy and his dog surviving after his dad's fish boat is wrecked. Beautifully filmed on our own Vancouver Island's rugged west coast, and Gulf Islands. 81min 1995 Pg

LEANING INTO THE WIND—ANDY GOLDSWORTHY follows Andy on his exploration of the layers of his world and the impact of the years on himself and his extraordinary art. As Goldsworthy introduces his own body into the work it becomes at the same time even more fragile and personal and also sterner and tougher, incorporating massive machinery and crews on his bigger projects.

"'LEANING INTO THE WIND' will be a joy both to lovers of 'RIVERS AND TIDES' (2001) and Andy Goldsworthy, but it will also welcome, delight and move newcomers. 92 min 2016 G

It's been 40 years since Warren Beatty and Julie Christie lit up the screen with this romantic fantasy. Beatty is a football player mistakenly taken to heaven before his time. The heavenly bureaucracy tries to make amends by dropping him back, but in the body of an eccentric billionaire who's involved in schemes involving the ecological destruction. He's besieged by protesters, including a British ecologist played by Julie Christie. Our protagonist also wants to get back to football. As you can imagine, (or barely remember), it's complicated, and fun. 1978 101min PG

Based on a true story, THE RIDER stars breakout Brady Jandreau as a once rising star of the rodeo circuit warned that his competition days are over after a tragic riding accident, leaving him with a brain injury. Back home, Brady finds himself wondering what he has to live for when he can no longer do what gives him a sense of purpose: to ride and compete. Director Chloé Zhao of this film wonderfully caught the feel of the country and the cowboy life style, with several of the actors including the lead and family members, playing themselves! 104min 2018 R (for language and pot use)

Link to the program on our site. Presented by guest curator Jason Karman, a Vancouver-based screenwriter and director whose 16 short films have screened internationally. Jason states, "It's about being able to experience many different lifetimes within a short time; short films offer us exposure to diverse points of view. The format generates dialogue and creates tolerance and acceptance at a time when it is increasingly hostile to disagree."
