Dear Mr. Lindsay:

In reply to your letter of January 30, 1974, I should still like to request your catalogues even though your books are directed mainly to a professional rather than lay audience. We do have many professionals connected with our organization and, as I mentioned in my earlier letter, will be publishing an academic journal for a predominantly professional readership. We will be carrying book reviews in the journal and would therefore like to familiarize ourselves with your titles.

Thank you kindly for your attention in this matter.

Yours truly,

Lanny Beckman
